Customer Reviews

This is a collection of full length novels that I read in their print editions when they first came out and have re-read when they were brought back out in their e-book form with some added updates and a few changes. In my opinion, they are much stronger for the updates.HIGHLANDER IN HER BED...West Highlands, near Oban, 1312Sir Alexander Douglas is on his way to claim his bride when he and his men are set upon by MacDougalls. His intended has betrayed him, he and his men are dying and with his last breath he curses the carved four poster bed he had made for his new bride...."You will rue the hour you e'er laid eyes on my bed. I shall haunt you and your issue until the end of all days, that I swear." His curse on the MacDougalls etched onto eternity.Present day, London and then ScotlandMara McDougall runs a tour business for would-be ghost hunters. As she is taking a break and finding some downtime from her work for just a bit she finds herself in an antique shop and comes upon an unusual four poster bed. She falls in love with it but knows she has no room for it in the states. She runs into a tall, handsome Highlander who she feels is dressed rather funny and he tells her to "Begone! Her ilk will never sleep in his bed." then he just ups and disappears. His rudeness infuriates her. She goes back to her hotel to find a message from a solicitor. She meets him to find that she's inherited Ravenscraig Castle from an eccentric old lady who took a liking to her when she ran her tours through her mansion in the Cotswolds. The castle is in Scotland and in order to keep it she has to erect a MacDougall memorial on the castle grounds and reunite the clan. She now has a place for that bed she fell in love with.
