Beneath These Bright Stars: Evie And Liam's Wedding (Wardham Book 7)

Synopsis

Youâ€™re invited to a very special Wardham weddingâ€¦ Itâ€™s been a year since Liam and Evie welcomed their daughter Ava to the world. A year of sleepless nights and laughter-filled days. Some fights. A lot of love. And non-stop parenting. Plus they had a wedding to plan. But now it's their time, and Liam wants to make the most of it. Liam has never had any problem showing Evie how much he loves her, and now that theyâ€™re making the ultimate commitment to each other, he wants to find exactly the right words as well. Then heâ€™ll go back to showing her, over and over again. This is a sequel novella to When They Weren't Looking, Wardham #3.

Evie a bridezilla no she just wanted to make Liam family understandBut it wasn't going rightall her plans was falling apart 3 days beforeShe just need to be Liam wife , the man she loved The man that gave everythingLiam just wanted to marry Evie that's all he wanted the women was his lifeHis soul she made him whole but as usually his parents not making it so easyThe plans Evie worked so hard on was falling apart but he knew he could fix itWith the wonderful friends he had in Wardham They never let each other downZoe York takes you to the town if Wardham instead if bring the town to you you meet Amazing characters in this series and get to revisit them like in this book it also lets you touch bases with some of the characters you haven't heard from yet..... Aww Evan Will he find his happiness I'm sure we all hope so

Wow, how I loved this book! I had already fallen in love with Liam and Evie from their first book and they didn't disappoint in this sequel. The whole Wardham series is special. I love all the characters and how they interact. Wouldn't you love to find a town with all these wonderful, hot, sexy, alpha males? I can't decide which I like better but Liam is one of my favorites because he had a lot of baggage to fight while going after Evie. And he never gave up. Sweet. Special. And oh so hot. Loved it.

Liam finally gets Evie to the altar. This is the long awaited sequel to When They Weren't Looking. Liam worked very hard to secure a forever place in Eve's heart. Now, he finally gets to tell her how much he loves her. Their vows are so amorous and genuine and so Liam and Eve. I love how he includes the boys in his quest to save the day. Zoe also shows us how men and women look at nuptials differently and what a funny contrast that is. She reminds us how they got there and where they are going. I love all the Wardham couples but I think Liam and Eve are my faves. And those stolen moments ~She blinked a few times. "So you didn't want to have a quickie?" "That on the table?" "She didn't bother to answer. We see our old friends from Wardham and even get to meet a new one (no spoilers here) you'll just have to read the book. I love all of the Wardham books and the new Pine Harbor series that intertwines them. Zoe writes likable, flawed characters and even makes the not so nice ones lovable in the end. Don't miss the wedding of the century ~ okay ~ the wedding we've all been waiting for and some surprises for upcoming books too.

I love all things Pine Harbor and Wardham Series. Very good characters whose lives are intertwined. Read one book, meet the main character's friends/family and then get drawn into the next book about them. I love Evie and Liam. They are a wonderful couple. Totally loved this story and glad to see more happy endings.

Poor Evie is worried about every aspect of her picture perfect wedding. Trying to impress Liam's stodgy rich mom and dad. When one thing goes wrong everything goes wrong. Step in the close knit community of Wardham. Liam and all their friends get together and give them the sweetest wedding anyone could ask for. Love all things Wardham and Pine Harbour!

This was a sweet story, a good follow-up to their full story. I enjoy this series; it's sweet, romantic, sexy, and sometimes it's mirroring a real couple's issues and struggles that just a "story" from someone's imagination and thoughts. I recommend it, and I'll be checking out her new series also.

Love every book and glad to see another coming out in the near future, love the first story with Evie and Liam, love that they finally got married in this second book tying them together forever. I think Liam sounds like the guy all the ladies dream of.

I haven't really ever seen inside the head of a bridezilla until reading Beneath These Bright Stars. I really can't say I was surprised that Evie Calhoun soon to be Evie McIntyre turned into one. What did surprise me was how Zoe York make me sympathize with her. At the beginning, I couldn't even understand why the need for a big wedding. I usually think of a wedding as announcing that a new life together is starting, but her life with Liam had started with beautiful loved new baby girl. By the end, I had completely bought into the whole package. The whole wedding shenanigans was worth it for the wedding itself. I wouldn't have wanted to miss the saying of their vows for anything! Love them! The author makes it clear this is a novella that continues Evie Calhoun and Liam McIntyre story from When They Weren't Looking. I believe you could enjoy this story of their wedding without having read how they get together. However, reading When They Weren't Looking first would enhance the enjoyment of this one. The author gave a copy for an honest review. 4.5 stars
