Deadly Conflicts (Hardy Brothers Security Book 21)

Synopsis

Ally Hardy and Jake Harrison are happy and in love. They're living together, improving their house, and Jake is planning a big surprise. A man from Ally's past shows up out of the blue and changes all of that. Vince Dawkins shared a torrid two-month affair with Ally five years ago, but he walked out without a backward glance and his return isn't cause for celebration in the Hardy household. Ally's brother James is suspicious. His relationship with Vince is just as convoluted and combustible as Ally's is and not in a good way. When Vince is drawn into a Hardy Brothers Security case, James thinks Vince is up to something nefarious. Jake readily agrees and Ally can't decide how she feels. It doesn't help that Vince keeps showing up almost as if he's following Ally from location to location and stoking her insecurities. You see, Ally is ready for marriage and a family. She's worried Jake isn't, though. For his part, Jake is ready for both but he wants to plan a big surprise and Ally's questions are throwing him for a loop and making him nervous. When the truth finally comes out, the operation is bigger than anyone expects and Ally finds herself in a world of trouble. Can Jake and James get to her in time? And if they do, will Jake finally have the courage to ask a big question and wait for a very important answer? Only time will tell, but the Hardy family has never been one for surrendering without a fight. This time will be no different.

Customer Reviews

To be honest, Ally has always bugged me in the past. The last few books have shown her in a different way. I was very pleased with Ally in this book. I love Jake and the attitude he has with the Hardy's. When he had "the talk" with Ally's dad, I was almost in tears! You can feel the love that he has for her is evident. Loved the book and thought it was too cute the Mom & Dad Hardy are moving down to Sterling Heights! Look forward to the last 3 books, but wish we could see the future for the Hardy family!

I hate putting any one of these books down. I read the first 20 books in this series one right after the other. This book as well as the previous in the series got my heart racing with anticipation. I love all the main characters in this series. I hated waiting for this book to be released and now having to wait for the next two. This is a definite must read series!!! All of Lily Harper Hart's other series of books are also great. Enjoy!!!! Reading in order is a must ^†

Great to visit all the Hardy's again . As usual this story was full of laughs and a few happy tears . If you've not read this series you're missing out on a great read . Highly recommended

I just love this series, but to be honest I love everyone of the book of Lily Harper Hart`s that I have read thus far.
