Basketball's Toughest Calls: Traveling, Block/Charge And Contact/Displacement

Synopsis

What is Basketball's toughest call? If you ask 100 officials you'd get many different answers. The three that would come up frequently are undoubtedly Block/Charge Travelling and Contact/Displacement. Basketball's Toughest Calls takes on these infractions with the help of some of the industry's most experienced officials. What better way to get these calls right than by learning from the men and women who make the rules and those who either administer them or supervise those that do. You'll get a thorough overview of each to help clarify your thinking and improve your ability to call each correctly more often.

Customer Reviews

Great books for new officials like myself. Goes into the nuance of officiating that the rules book and case book doesn't. Great quotes and advice from officials at all levels.
