Customer Reviews

I honestly hardly ever write reviews (only if the book is really good or really bad) but I have to say this was not a good book. There are SO many mistakes throughout and it's SO very unbelievable. There was zero chemistry between these two and what's "bullet removing surgery"? Quite laughable, really. Also, if her ex is abusive AND he keeps attacking her, in most MC's, she would have a member with her at all times OR they would have killed that guy. They barely even acknowledged the fact that he was her abusive husband! I would not recommend this book.....there are many other REALLY good, gritty, MC books out there. Sorry!

Honestly I don't know what to say about this book, it started pretty good but then I don't know what happen. OK I got the ex husband abuse and I got the VP Stone and I even got the plot being the rival MC but I couldn't get just how immature and dumb Josie was being a 25 yr old woman I hate reading weak dumb women and most of all the wording as if no one I mean no one proof read this story. I highly recommend the author read this and see the work she put out there for readers to buy and read with her name on it. Don't know if I liked or didn't like.

This is a good book, enough drama and interesting characters to keep you entertained throughout. Her ex is a piece of work, in the worst way possible. It is good that the MC has her back and will help her even when she doesn't think she needs them.

Wasn't really an exciting read..lot of grammatical errors...felt like the hero and heroine were really young, i.e. teenagers.....better MC books out there to read..glad it was only 99¢.

Grammar check. Grammar check.The storyline was there. The book, characters and plot lacked depth. That old adage, write what you know about....the author needs to learn it.
