Customer Reviews

Kane Reeves was introduced to us in the first book and through out the Harper's Mountains series we've learn somethings about him. Like how strong, vulnerable, dangerous and lonely he was despite being around the Bloodrunners. Kane was the last of his family's bloodline, a Blackwing Dragon. He had been in hiding for years but The Last Immortal Dragon Damon Daye found him and the ancient dragon wanted to collect the blood debt Kane's father owed. Damon send his great-granddaughter Rowan to do the job, to hunt the last Blackwing Dragon. Or that what Kane thought! Rowan Barnett was send to look after the Bloodrunners since Harper couldn't shift because of her pregnancy. Rowan felt like she wasn't up to the job, she and her inner beast were not getting along. Rowan didn't trust her dragon. Rowan and Kane's first encounter was hilarious, the former was afraid of going on a plane for the first and what were the chances that she would ended up aotting next to the latter. She talked so much that he couldn't help but smile at her craziness. Kane thought that Rowan knew about him being the last of his kind and her clan's ancient enemy, he soon found out that he waa wrong and that she was as clueless as a newborn baby. That said innocent Ronan lost her treasure and Kane workes to help her locate it. As they embarked on this new venture together, they got to know each other better. Kane opened up to Rowan regarding his inner beast, there was a deep connection between the Bloodrunner and the Blackwing. Rowan and Kane were becoming more than friends yet the latter wanted to pull away which was reasonable because their clans had been enemies for centuries. The former was heartbroken and facing death as the Sickening had begun.
