Synopsis

Be careful in Darkside, because its darkness is seductive. Once you feel its allure, you won't be able to resist. Zyara al Sirian has devoted most of her adult life to the art of healing. As the First Division's medic, she's seen more than her fair share of war wounds and trauma. And ever since the Kordolians arrived on Earth, she's had her hands full tending to a motley group of survivors. She hasn't had a break in longer than she can remember. A break? What's that again? After much persuasion, she finally agrees to take some well-deserved time off to explore the city with Sera, Arin, Jia, and their Kordolian mates. You need to relax. It'll be fun, you'll see. Darkside comes alive at night. When she crosses paths with a mysterious, charming Human called Kainan, she realizes there's more to this lawless place than meets the eye. The Federation holds no sway here. Beneath Darkside's glittering facade, Humans rule hidden empires from the shadows through secrecy and violence. Zyara gets a taste of their world when Human conflict spills out onto the street. She can't help but intervene. It's what she was trained to do. Her actions save a life. In return, Kainan says he will give her anything she desires. Oh dear. What's a Kordolian to do? Warning: This book is a science-fiction alien romance. It contains swearing, violence, sensual sex scenes and silver aliens. It's definitely recommended for readers aged 18 and over. Darkside Blues is a novella set in the Dark Planet Warriors universe. It will make more sense if you've read the other books first, although that's probably not absolutely essential.

Customer Reviews

Kordolians! Kordolians! I took a day to write these review, because I wasn't sure of my rating. I'll give it a 4,5. But before I explain why, I want to say: that I love these series. I look long and hard, and still browse in search of what I want to read about aliens meeting humans... And romance salted with action and horror. And I found some, a few were good, many not that good, a lot I just need to forget, but Anna Carven is an author who hit the mark straight in the Center. I'm in awe of how she writes this serie, so fast and very very well. This one just come after a month and a half, I think, after the book 4 (which was exciting and let me drool about those Kordolians.) If an invasion was to happened on earth, I wish they would be like that. (But there is a few chances in the opinion of scientists, too bad, huh!) Back to the novella, I enjoyed it very much. Zyara, is after all, a pillar in the first division. The only kordolian woman we met, who is not crazy: aka The Impress. So for her character, for me, I was waiting for something... A bit more then a novella. So I'm a bit ambivalent on that choice. I understand and agree (totally! Oui oui oui) that TArak and Abey are the main characters, but they are all so good and interesting and passionate to read about, that in my opinion Zyara needed a book (400 pages, no problem ;). Moreover the informations we get in this one are gold. We get an insight in darkside. We get the mechanism of the government on earth, and it's interesting to learn about mechanic of the world in which we are diving in. As well as the different way the mob has divided this neighbor, or who is driving the wheel and how. But we are missing time (pages) to completely diving into it.
