Kate Robbins is one of my favorite writers of Scottish adventures! She never disappoints me! I absolutely loved Spirit Stones! Again, she just delivered another fantastic and romantic tale, which is short, fun to follow and very well written. It's the story of Sheona MacLeod, who was given some magic stones by an enchantress on the Isle of Skye year 1596. Eight years later, on the same island, feuds are raging between the MacDonalds and the MacLeods clans. Sheona is being held captive by Malcolm MacDonald, the clan chief's son, so she must keep her identity secret. A wonderful and sweet romance will develop between them. Beautiful chemistry! The spirit stones, will hold a key role in this story, but I won't say how. Loved the scene when Sheona and Malcolm have to ride the same horse on their long journey, it so cute! You have to read SPIRIT STONES! This novella is fast paced, filled with tenderness, passion and a touch of humor. Another Scottish adventure to recommend! Fantastic and so captivating! I really loved One Knight Standing, written by Kate Robbins and Ian Gillies. It is a beautiful tale to enjoy! A must to read! One Knight Standing, is the story of William, a charming knight and Catherine, a determined young woman who lives at Rosslyn Castle. It all started when the clan priest had died mysteriously and had to be replaced, enters Will, at Rosslyn, but he looks more like a warrior than a priest. Catherine, is curious, and wants to discover who is really Will! And she is so naive, I adored the part when she confessed her sins of impure thoughts! This scene was so cute and done with a touch of humor. The chemistry between Will and Catherine is adorable. Will they discover the true mystery behind Rosslyn Castle?
