Customer Reviews

WOW!! This series was amazing!! If you like shifters, you will definitely like this series. As I got into each book, the story just getting better and better!! Mia is a reclusive shifter, not knowing why she is the way she is; a shifter in hiding. With no pack behind her and with no clue how she became a shifter/wolf, she remains anonymous in this world. With no one to show her how to help her use her wolf, to shift, to do and understand things she should know as a shifter. She tends to keep to herself. She works at a bar that is frequented by other Shifters, predominantly of the Wolf Pack. She makes it through every shift at work trying not to inhale the humans scents by taking frequent bathroom breaks, which allows her to get some fresh air to clear her mind and to just make it to the end of her shift. She desperately needs this job to help pay the bills and to support her Mother. She's extremely careful. She never Shifts, only when she sleeps at night, and she makes sure her college roommate doesn't know a thing about her torn sheets when the occasional shift brings her claws out, and accidentally tears the sheets. As a student, she keeps to herself and concentrates on her schoolwork by achieving all straight A's, which has awarded her a coveted unpaid internship at a world-known dot.com company. One night at the bar, Lucas, Shifter/gorgeous/billionaire/Alpha/former leader of his wolf pack, stops by for a drink. Unbeknownst to Mia, he will soon be her boss the following week. While Mia was pouring a drink for Lucas, he happened to see her hands shaking and notices her heaving breathing, and takes an interest. By looking at her, the "shifter signs" aren't there.

DesiredDesired is a wonderful book it grabs your attention from the beginning. It's a fast read that you do not want to put down. Mia is in college student trying to make a better life for herself and her mother. Mia does not want anyone to know she's a shifter. One night at work she goes outside to get a little fresh air when 3 red wolves follow her outside. At first she didn't think anything of it but when that start coming toward her that's when she realize she's in a bad situation. That's when she meets Lucas and he protects her from them. Lucas lost his mate and he's trying to keep the darkness at bay when he meets Mia and he can't keep his self from following her with his eyes. He watches her go out of the side door and he decides to follow her after he watches the red follow her and feels the need to protect her. He fights his attraction for Mia because she is human. There's a big cliffhanger and I can't wait to read the next book!!! GuardedOmg!!! What can I say I'm so captivated by these books that I can't wait until the next one comes out!!! Lucas is so determined to not get involved with Mia that he tries to push her away. He thinks Mia has a better chance to find someone who can love and protect her better than he can. All Mia wants is Lucas even though he is still caring around the of his deceased mate that he could not protect. Mia is going to keep perusing him until he gives in to her and she's hoping it's soon. Hunted Mia is trying to put Lucas's needs before hers so she can help him heal. The more they are around each other the harder it is for both of them. When Mia tell Lucas she wants him to claim and he tells Mia that she deserves an Alpha that is not broken she runs back to her best friend Jupiter to lean on.
