When I was single (with no prospects in sight), praying the 54 day rosary novena gave me so much peace and comfort! I joined a couple of Catholic Single websites when I was in my thirties and corresponded with several nice men, but most did not seem very serious about finding a good Catholic spouse or seemed to just be looking for a penpal (I love writing letters and receiving mail, but what I really wanted was a good Catholic gentleman to be my husband!). Quite a few times when I thought I found a good guy, I prayed the 54 day rosary novena for discernment about a certain guy and many times I would receive an answer to whether this was the right guy or not before the novena ended. I could always count on this novena for answers! It has NEVER failed me! A few years later I prayed this 54 day rosary novena again and received a nice email in December 2006 from a gentleman who lived in the same state as I did. We corresponded for a few months on the website, talked on the phone, and finally met in person on March 19th, 2006 (St. Joseph's Feast Day!). We met at my church and prayed a rosary together. Later on, I brought him over to my house to meet my Mom and sister. We enjoyed a wonderful St. Patrick's Day meal together (He even bought us Irish Soda bread - my favorite!)and took a lovely walk around my neighborhood. When it was time for him to leave, he expressed disappointment he couldn't see me the following Saturday due to a previous appointment he already had scheduled. But two weeks later he returned and we had another nice day together. We continued seeing each other all spring and summer. September 17th, 2006, he asked me to marry him. I was shocked, but of course said yes! His words: "And we're keeping the cat." LOL!
