Customer Reviews

I love Holly's sheikh romance novels, and this one is no exception. The characters are well developed, but different from those in her other sheikh novels. The plot moves along smoothly, and I didn't want to put the book down. Amity is a well known, well respected PR professional in LA. Aziz is a handsome billionaire sheikh with royal blood, but he is a playboy with a bad rep. He hires Amity to fly to Al-Mabbar City in the Middle East to help him rebuild his reputation. While working with Aziz, Amity falls in love with him, and her professionalism flies out the window, and they make love. Afterward she feels she can no longer work for him, and she flies home. After a time she learns she is pregnant - with triplets! When Aziz learns of this, he flies to LA to her office, and they have a loud argument. Aziz says he will pay her one billion dollars to never tell anyone that he is the father. Amity takes a long sabbatical. She is very heart-broken. You need to read the entire book to see how this is resolved. It has a guaranteed HEA. I received an ARC for an honest review.

I loved the book She knows what she's doing great Sheikh writer about a girl goes to a Sheikh to try to improve his image they have a one night stand she gets pregnant with triplets he does take it to good but you need to read the book you will love it see how the story unfolds enjoy it I did a lot enjoy Margie

This is probably the most boring book I've read in a long time. It was also not very realistic. If some guy who had gotten me pregnant had said all those terrible accusations to me, I would never have just said oh I forgive you and run off to a middle eastern country just because he came back weeks later and apologized. It would have taken a whole lot more than that. Have some respect for yourself. Like I said, boring.

I usually love the sheik's stories, but this one was a bit of a letdown. It was too fast, everything took place too fast for me. I also didn't like his behavior when he found out. Still a good read, just not as excellent as the last few I have read.

I bet whoever reads this book will not stop until they finished the story. This is a book you must tell your friends about

This book was ok she fell in love with him way to quickly. Her books are ok yes I would recommend
