This is it, finally! Trish & Boone's story. I have been waiting for this one and let me tell you it was worth the wait and did not disappoint at all. These characters have so much depth that they easily pull you into their story so you immediately become emotional invested in both of their lives and their families. They have some crazy hot chemistry that you can actually feel from their very first confrontation in Boone's trailer when Trish walks in on him (did I say he was naked?). Trish thinks he is the womanizing partier the press makes him out to be. She finds out though that he is nothing at all like his reputation and the reasons he has that reputation. Trish is a beautiful, strong, devoted, talented, loyal independent woman. She is very close to her family. She is an actress filming a movie where she is playing the role of the heroine-addicted girlfriend of a rock star. She has her eyes on an Oscar. Then there is Boone, Mm mm mmâ |.Boone Stryker, hot name for a sizzling hot man. He is SEXY AF, alpha to the core, protective, loyal, devoted and strong yet so sweet and tender at the same time. He too is very close to his family. Boone is a real life rock star playing the role of the rock star in the movie. Because of tragic events in his past and some trouble with his brother in the present, some of the scenes are hitting a bit close to home and causing Boone to be unable to perform. They are sent together to the next filming location for 10 days in hopes that Trish can help Boone with his acting. All this time alone together, one adorable kitten named Sparky, a connection that is off the charts and a lot of hot sex and one week later they can't imagine being away from each other again. They weren't just chased by love they were tackled by it!!
