Customer Reviews

This is not really a twenty book box set involving a certain set of characters. I thought this would be a series, each book making connections. And that was the case until book 10 ended. Then book 11 began, and it was totally unrelated to the others. To find out what happens at the end of book 10, you have to purchase a different book.. I felt like it was a scam. This box set is really a hodgepodge. And they all need a better proof reader and editor. There are many corrections the reader has to make on his/her own.

I followed the basic story lines through all of these books but felt corners were cut and the books published before they were ready. People are saying things but aren't there articles are removed in impossible situations and to top it off sentences stop abruptly. Though I don't always agree with the proclivities introduced they are quick reads. Is it worth .99? Yeah if you don't mind addend and changing words as you go. None of the authors spent time fixing the errors.

Love the stories jus didn't like that there was no ending for two of the stories and I have to go and buy the rest of the books to get to the ending of the story but the very last story had its ending and that made me buy the sequel to the other characters in the book that caught my interest

Women were weak. No woman should be treated bad and stay with the person. Wish I could get my money back.

I loved the stories but hated that you have to purchase another 12 + books to finish the story! I enjoyed the last story because it was short and sweet and ended without having to purchase more books to get the end of the story. I will not purchase the remaining books of the first two stories.

Was a pretty good read. Got bored at parts..sometimes it went on and on with the same whiney girl and immature bickering. Needs to be proof read found a bunch of typos! Not bad for a buck though.

Enjoyable easy reading. The first series was great but didn't have all the books so can't wait to be able to finish. The second series was nice into my boss book.

I liked the storyline, although sometimes got confused switching back and forth between the main characters. I will have to read this again.
