Synopsis

Once upon a time, in a land far, far away...well, Scotland...Rose lived tucked away from the world with her aunt. Orphaned as a baby and adopted by her aunt, she's used to her eccentric ways--including her overprotectiveness. But Rose wants more from life. However, she never quite expected for Laird Hamish McTavish--complete with kilt--to change things. The brash, and admittedly braw, man is hardly like the charming men Rose has been dreaming of. Freshly returned from the battlefield with an unexpected inheritance, highlander Hamish is struggling enough to fit in at the sleepy lowland village. When he comes across a feisty young woman with wild hair and a bold tongue on his land, he doesn't expect it to lead to more than a five-minute argument.Â But he cannot help himself. His curiosity is piqued. Who is this young woman surrounded by three slightly-crazed elderly women seemingly intent on keeping her from the world? He must find out more.Â Unfortunately, there are several people more than willing to get in the way of that aim. Rose's aunt for one--not to mention his late-cousin's mistress who is determined to replace one cousin with the other. Not only must Hamish deal with his duties and find a way to get close to Rose, he must also find a way to get rid of this abhorrent woman...before she does anything truly evil. Wake Me With a Kiss is a sweet, clean novella of 28k words.

Customer Reviews

Wake Me With a Kiss: A Fairy Tale Retelling, a new series in what promises to be an impressive series. "Regency Fairy Twists" Book 1 by Samantha Holt, is a sweet Regency Romance. The re-telling of "Sleeping Beauty" with a twist. Set in the lowlands of Scotland. Only 90 or so pages, but packed full of deliciousness. Laird Hamish McTavish, a Highlander, just returned off the battlefield, unexpectedly inherits from his cousin, he is brawn, brash and struggling to fit into his new world, in this sleepy lowland village. Rose, an orphan adopted by an essecentic aunt as a baby, she is beautiful, with a brash tongue to go with her wild hair, she dreams of meeting a charming Prince not a brash Highlander, decked out in a kilt. Sparks fly between Hamish and Rose, their first encounter was anything but perfect, but Hamish's curiosity has definitely been piqued by Rose. However, there are several in the village who doesn't wish their relationship to blossom. Well written tale, with intriguing and utterly charming characters. The storyline, while, is slightly predictable, will pique the readers interest, all the same, while the cast of various characters, try to come between true love and destiny. You have Rose surrounded by three esscentic older women, of course, evil to content with, Hamish's late cousins' mistress, all determined to interfere in Hamish and Roses's blossoming romance. Can Hamish stop the craziness before something really evil happens? Or will they lose all to the mistrations of others? A quick, sweet romance! "Wake me with a Kiss", is perfect for an afternoon reading experience. Fans of re-telling of childhood fairy tales, charming characters and HEA, will enjoy this quick read and most enjoyable.
