To Hold A Rainbow: A Maui Love Story

Synopsis

Rebecca McCall has come to Maui to heal her heart from a long-lost love, to hide herself away from any entanglements of the emotional kind. But when she first encounters the beautiful Polynesian vision of Kamea Connolly, she finds herself abruptly pulled out of her self-imposed isolation. Kamea Connolly leads a quiet but enjoyable self-sufficient life on her beautiful island of Maui. But when she meets Rebecca McCall, she finds her heart becoming attached to someone she never wanted to find herself entangled with - a vacationing tourist. Maui, and the spirit of the island seem to be conspiring to bring them together - or pull them apart. Which will it be?

Customer Reviews

Throughout this story, I just didn't feel "the sizzle" between Rebecca and Kamea. The match was just never lit in this romantic tale and while it tried, it just never got there for me. I loved the artwork at the beginning of each chapter. Plus, having been to Maui, I really enjoyed reliving my visits there through this book. The story is sweet. And predictable. And kinda' bland.

A great love story. A new romance unfolded in a tropical paradise. The setting the characters and the their life together are truly magical. I enjoyed learning about everyday life in Hawaii. I was glad the love scenes were discreet. I would recommend this book to my friends and family.

Very good read!!! Love how descriptive it was of the islands and things .made ya feel like you was there and experiencing the islands. Can't wait to read the next book and the journey these characters are going to take.

I am ready to see what happens next to Kamea & Rebecca. The author brings to life the magic of the island, the colors of the ocean, and the love of two women who are looking for anything but a relationship.

This book renewed my belief in true love and destiny. I loved the Hawaiian feel of it and love that it was more about their romance on a emotional level rather than a physical one. I'm glad it wasn't just all about sex, but about gaining a true connection with someone.
