Battletech Era Report 3145

Synopsis

By Catalyst Game Lab BattleTech Era Report: 3145 is the next installment of the Era Report series, which explores the most exciting past eras of the BattleTech universe. Designed to introduce new players to a part of BattleTech's rich history (or, bring older players back for a fresh look at such periods), the Era Reports provide an overview of the nations, characters, and technologies that made these past eras truly remarkable.

The Era reports are short, condensed histories of the BattleTech timeline. This Era report condenses and explains/expounds on the events scattered among the novels, websites, etc. a must read to understand what the heck is going on and when during the dark-age era.

I am just getting back into the game after a decade off. The book does a great job laying out the era changes, and listing some of the new factions. Just a word of warning, it's more of a companion read with Field Manual 3145, and both are needed for the full picture.

An interesting addition to the BattleTech Universe, Era Report 3145 introduces the universe set down by WizKids and their Mechwarrior Dark Age/Age of Destruction Miniatures games. The book covers all of the novels briefly along with advancing the plot forward from 3140 (or so) where it left off with WizKids and moves it to 3145. A recommended Read!

I am getting back into BattleTech after ~10 years. I really liked this book and found the information quite nice. Some of my favorite clans are no more :(, but I still find a lot to like in Battletech.
