Slip Of Fate (Werelock Evolution Book 1)

Synopsis

Bad-boy werelock meets stubborn human girl in this epic series. Finding love at first sight with your fated soul mate sounds so romantic. Unless, of course, that "mate" happens to be your brother's sworn enemy and the overbearing Alpha werewolf-warlock who has taken you hostage. Things get complicated in this twisty love-hate trilogy about a stubborn American girl who stumbles upon forbidding paranormal circumstances and finds herself at the center of a blood feud between rival South American werewolf packs. The task of taming a formidable, drop-dead sexy werelock has never been so hard. And so hot. Mature Content Warning This book contains violence, strong language, and sexual situations and is intended for adult readers. This book is part of a series and contains a cliffhanger ending. Recommended reading order for the Werelock Evolution Series: Slip of Fate (Book 1) Fear the Heart (Book 2) Girl from Jussara (Prequel) Revenge of the Wronged (Book 3)

Customer Reviews

I tend to get lost in the books I read. I tune everything out around me and before I know it, the story has ended and I'm left with a mixture of emotions. If it's a cliffhanger, I'm opening up the bookstore on my kindle and rushing to find out if the next in the series is out. If it's not, I have a moment of âœDamn the Manâ • emotions and add the title for the next one on my notepad. If itâ™s a HEA (Happily Ever After) moment, itâ™s âœYAY! Itâ™s about time!â • I still go looking to see if there is another in the series. If there is not, Iâ™m checking out the rest of the books an author has. I have to say though too, there are some books that make me just make me mad and frustrated. With that entire back story, I have to say that I hands down, loved this book! Iâ™m a sucker for a good romance and some steam added into the paranormal jumble. Slip of Fate follows the journey of Milena as she makes the decision to find her brother. She has lost her mother and is all alone in the world. The one connection she has is to Raul. If she can find him, then maybe she can find some sort of order in her life again. Maybe she can feel stronger over all. Right off the bat, Hettie leads us into the turmoil. Milena is kidnapped at the airport when she lands in South America. Scared and confused, she has no idea what it is that sheâ™s done or why. Her kidnappers take her to somewhere and inform her sheâ™s going to be a trade off for the live of another. She figures that pretty much, this is it? This is the end of her life and how can she possibly survive anything more? She had been assaulted in more than one way just in the drive from one destination to another. But now, her path is altered and she finds conflicting emotions of calm, fear, peace, lust and anger. Who can she trust?

The action and excitement starts from the very beginning with Hettie Iversâ™ book, Slip of Fate. Hoping to reunite with her brother following the passing of their mother, 18-year-old, Melina ends up in a world she never imagined existed. Milena Caro sets off on an adventure to another country to find her brother, Raul, and ends up a kidnapping victim. Her kidnapper takes her to the Reinoso clan compound in hopes of making a deal with the clanâ™s Alpha to save his son. Things donâ™t end up going his way and Melina ends up in the custody of the Reinoso family, a family of werelocks. Milena meets multiple members of the Reinoso clan compound, including Remy, Alcaeus, Alessandra, Alex, and the clan doctor, Kai. The members of the clan subject her to numerous inexplicable âœtreatmentsâ • for her assorted injuries. Despite her less than hospitable treatment by many people in the compound, Melina forms a friendly bond with the eldest member of the family, Alcaeus. To make matters worse, as well as more confusing, Milena finds herself attracted to Alex, the Alpha of the family. Since becoming his hostage, Alex sends Milena incredibly mixed signals. One minute he wants her gone, the next minute he is staking a claim to her. There is also a tremendous amount of passion ignited between the two, how they will act on it remains the question. This is a rather quick read. Milenaâ™s unbelievable situation pulls you in so you want to find out if she escapes from her captures to find her brother or if she stays at her present location.

Does she end up falling for Alex, the man who has threatened her brother's life, or does she put family first? Hettie Ivers leaves you with a cliffhanger making you yearn for more of these characters who quickly grab a hold of you and don't let go.
