“She was trying to save me when all I would do was destroy her.” • They called him El Diablo, the devil. Alejandro Eduardo Martinez spent his life running a worldwide mob empire. Death and fortune attached themselves to him. Governments bowed to him. The law bent for him. Men equally feared and admired him. And women swooned at his feet. One woman would come along. She would be his weakness, his downfall and his salvation. The man behind the legend. This is his epic saga, spanning decades. “Little did she know, I was the villain in this story.” • ALEJANDRO EDUARDO

Wow! I can't even find the right words to write a review for this amazing book. I mean, how do you even find the adequate words to describe what is such a brilliant read? To give Monica and this book all the recognition they deserve? This is by far my favorite book by M Robinson. I wasn't even halfway done, yet I knew this was an easy 5 stars and top favorite book for me. No ifs or buts about it. I loved it so much! Monica is truly an amazing storyteller. How she comes up with these brilliant stories, I have no idea. One minute you're reading a scene thinking, "Yay, they are finally together" but then next, something unexpectedly happens and trust me she leaves no questions unanswered; she addresses them all. Everything a character does has a reason. The way she interconnects the characters from previous series without giving away their plots is what makes this book a standalone and not something every author can achieve. We see the gang from The Good Ol' Boys series briefly but it doesn't confuse you or overwhelms you as to what their stories are about. Now onto the story, I don't want to give much of the plot or spoilers away because I feel like this is the type of book you need to experience. It has so many twists that you will not see coming at all. I didn't cry as much as I did with the other books BUT this book is a whole nother level of eff up O_O it will mess with your mind! You think you know, but you have no idea. You will not hate Alejandro "El Diablo" Martinez because he will have a spell on you! I swear I tried and I couldn't help but love the jerk :P What does that say about me? Your heart is going to break several times for both Alejandro and Lexi! She endures so much and gah the feels!
