Customer Reviews

This book was good, better than the first book in the series. But 100% standalone book:) What I love about this series is how the girls go after what they want! Especially in this book as it meant getting the hero saved from a horrible mistake. I will say this as well about the story as it progressed it got better and better, and I am not just talking about the down-and-dirty sex;)STOP HERE PLEASE IF YOU DONT LIKE POSSIBLE SPOILERS)))) THANK YOU.I also like how Ms. Jordan wrote this hero. He had it rough growing up so he never really knew love. He didn't even recognized it to begin with. That's why he was willing to settle for something so fake and wrong for him. But, luckily for him, heroine overcame all her reservations and seduced the hell out of him. He tried to run but he couldnt hide. Poor guy didn't even stand a chance. He soon realized his priorities were not where they should have been. So don't expect insta-love as this hero had baggage, as you will read, and grew as a person throughout the book. But he was no angel, he wasn't going to let nothing slide and he was going to protect what he now considered his. He showed well how he became a sauvy, business, shark in the book. But best part of all was how heroine really brought out his dominant alpha and gave us all what we love to read in a Jordan Silver novel: possessive, protective, can't-keep-his-hands-to-himself, alpha. Heroine was so sweet and sheltered. She really didn't realize what she was really getting into. But, boy oh boy, did she soon realize that hero carried huge package and knew how to use it. She may have been hurting couple a times but she sure kept seducing him for more. She was such a good mix of sugary sweet and spicy hot!! loved the book. Safe read. Light read.
