I set out to read this book after I had read his Autobiography. If you too found yourself in this situation you already know what I found out... They are essentially the same testimony. This book contains large excerpts from the autobiography, but exculding a timeline of Mr. Mullers Life in the front, nothing substantially new. However, it is to date one of the most outstanding testimonies of a life of faith in our times that I have read. I also HIGHLY recommend Rees Howells: Intercessor by Norman Grubb. If you are seeking to deepen your faith or desire to live a more dedicated life for the Lord you'll not regret purchasing this book!

If you are in search of the testimony of a man who has lived a life solely in prayer, dependant solely on God alone, this is the book for you! The story of George MÃ ller is definitely an inspirational story of a man who placed his hope and faith in God alone, for the care of thousands of orphans, and helped out many many missionaries monetarily and spiritually... he did all this while never asking another person for anything... just rooting his heart in prayer! Amazing!! Read this book!!

Excellent book! This is the best book on prayer I have ever read. It clearly demonstrates God's faithfullness to a man who depended only on Him and not man for provision and direction in everything. I was greatly inspired to live my life of faith the same way as George Muller.

Release the Power of Prayer contains excerpts from the auto-biography of George Muller and commentary concerning the pertinent circumstances. Muller wanted to show Christians that God could be taken at his Word and would fulfill every promise to us. Muller was first called to a ministry to the orphans of Bristol, England in the 19th Century, in which time the horrors of the work house or the cruel street was the fate of children without parents. Muller never solicited one shilling from people. He took all of his needs to his heavenly Father. Through prayer alone, the Lord facilitated Muller caring for over 10,000 orphans in the 20+ years he ran them.We cannot borrow George Muller's faith. However, we can be challenged and encouraged by it. This type of intimate relationship with God is available to every believer if they will but pursue it. Only by taking our own needs to God in prayer are we able to learn of the power found in prayer.

Excellent value for the price. Compilation of George Muller's journal, that chronicles the relationship between man and Yahweh (Hebrew name for Lord). Helps to build ones faith. We lean too much on the temporal (flesh) which shall soon pass away and return to the earth from whence it came. But, there is power in meditating on the spiritual side of who we (really) are!... A reverent read.

George Muller once again directed me to the main source of answer: Jesus Christ. This book served as a grate inspiration in many different ways as to how to trust the Lord in impossible situations, and once I started doing the same simple principles as Muller described from his life, God started to show amazing things in my finances and other areas.

George Mueller is one of the 'greats' in walking out the Christian faith in everyday life. This book will give you insight to his victorious life and how he fed over 2000 children each day by praying to God. His genius was he considered himself of having no particular attribute that made him different than the average person. His answers to prayers is mind-blowing. And he tells the reader how he or she can attain the same results!

This book really blessed, as well as ministered to my soul regarding practical applications pertaining to prayer. George Muller wasn't afraid to trust God, and has helped rekindle that spark I so needed in my life.
