Customer Reviews

I love reading these short wholesome stories!! Nathaniel sees Abigail singing in the forest and wants to meet her but she runs away!! They meet in Bath and then London again when he thinks she is just like his former love!! A sweet story with a great ending!!!

This was the worst book I have ever read. The description gave no hint what the story was actually about. If so, I would never have bought it. According to it, it was a lovely situation where the two people were so in love. It was really a short ugly story with crazed characters, even the "hero," who only at the very end became a "wonderful" man.

I have loved this series from start to finish. Good, clean romances that are easy to read and don't try to be clever. They give me what I want, which is a good story with a happy ending.
