A Fall of Secrets by Bella Forrest is book number fifteen in the series, A Shade of Vampire. The residents of The Shade have come out victorious in their battle against the black witches. So much has changed in their world now. Their own witches have rebuilt the island to accommodate not only the wolves but now the dragons. I want to take a minute here to say that I love the addition of the dragons, the very handsome dragons when they are in human form I want to add. I have no idea where Bella Forrest is going with this. Could she be planning a new series featuring them? I can only hope. The dragons are ready to meet the single women of The Shade and to begin courting them. They want a formal ball where they will have their first meeting. I can't wait to find out more about them. I am intrigued with their own prince. Has he truly given up his interest in Rose? Because of Ben, the human world now knows about the existence of paranormals. So the black witches decide to use this in their own favor and just start taking humans right out in the open. Since they didn't get to take all of the humans from The Shade, they will take them from the human world in hopes of completing their ritual with Lilith. Of course, Derek and Sofia want to warn the human world to protect themselves against the black witches and to prove that not all paranormals are evil. And Rose, who was supposed to stay safely on the island, has a plan of her own. So many of our beloved characters are finding their own dreams coming true. Some are getting married, some having children. But until they kill Lilith, the threat of the black witches will always be over their heads. The humans of the world will never be safe until this is taken care of.
