Customer Reviews

I've had Tammi's books on my Kindle for a bit, & decided to finally get around to checking them out. While I likely should have read the prosperity book first (ha!!) - I opted for 'Manifesting Love From the Inside Out' first (cause hey, it would be nice...but anyhowoo...) On a certain level, I was expecting a 'law of attraction/'get' a mate type of book, where I'd recite a litany of perfect qualities of this (external) person, describing in detail, etc. - about my soulmate, who would magnetically show up on the prowess of my manifestation skills in crafting my incantations. Wrong, wrong, wrong -& I'm really humbled. It's about becoming from the inside, not 'getting' something from the outside. Using sound, sensible insights & simple exercises that I'm finding illuminating & humbling - the book teaches that you have to go within, confront, rectify, & accept your stuff, to be the person who can accept the right person for you, by first accepting yourself (while being honest & willing to work through your stuff). She presents this far more elegantly, and adds her own life walk, candidly admitting her own challenges (which made me feel better/less queasy, & braver/more accepting of the idea of opening my own Pandora's boxes of personal weirdness). Why I'm compelled to write: the approach, discussion, & exercises (simple, but make you DO something and are illuminating!) are completely in sync with my therapist's recommends. He's a well-respected, very reputable EMDR trauma therapist (took over a year to get off the waiting list & into his practice), who will actually stop you, assess, give immediate feedback (even confront) & lead you to understand your stuff (vs.
