Customer Reviews

I read this bundle as part of the KU programme. I'm being generous by rounding it off to 3 stars. My individual reviews for each book were as follows:+++Spoilers+++Highlander in her dreams - 3 stars! I've only read this author through KU and this was probably the least enjoyable. Anyone who reads my reviews knows that I'm quick to finish a book but I kept putting this one down and it didn't hold my interest very much. The premise that the H and h "meet" when she's just 18 yo and he appears to her when she visits Scotland for the first time. From there they meet each other in sexy dreams for 12 years because she lives in the present day and he in the 14th century. I have no idea why this happened for as long as 12 years - I didn't feel that the h was living her life at all. The h then goes back to Scotland on a sort of business trip and ends up back in the 14th century with the H. The story rambles on with lots of improbabilities (more than necessary imho). I have downloaded the bundle of the Ravenscraig series, I hope the rest are better than this one. A Knight's Seduction -

4 stars This is the final instalment in the 5 part medieval series, Knight's Series. I still say that book 4 was best but we needed to wrap everything up. The author decides to redeem one of the villains from the series and it's a storyline that I'm a sucker for. I'd say this could stand alone but why wouldn't you read some of the other stories because they're free on KU at the moment? There's no sugar-coating this one. We know all about the H and his desperate desire to kill his father because the father refused to acknowledge him. He's the illegitimate son of a French courtesan (a commoner) and the noble H from book 1.
