Kissing The Enemy (Scandals And Spies Book 1)

Synopsis

Stealing a code book from an enemy spy should be easy for someone like Frederica Vale. As the plain looking older sister, she's practically invisible at social events. Never mind that she has no experience as a spy or that the codebook rests in the possession of one of the most powerful men in England. Freddie has no choice-she's desperate to save her young sister from the lecherous intentions of their guardian and recovering the book is her only option. Tristan Graylocke has never been able to measure up to his brother, the Duke of Tenwick. But being second best has its advantages. No one pressures him to get married and produce an heir, leaving him to carouse at will-an activity that lends itself perfectly to the brothers' secret lives as spies. When an alluring enemy spy shows up at the house party planned specifically for the purposes of passing along a code book, Tristan finds himself drawn under her spell. Freddie seems innocent and inexperienced. Is her innocence a clever guise, or is she being coerced by someone? Tristan and Freddie soon find themselves engaged in a seductive game of cat and mouse where each will do what they must for their country, especially if it involves kissing the enemy.

Customer Reviews

Miss Frederica Vale (Freddie to Mom and sisters) dislikes Lord Elias Harker a distant relative of her Father. Freddie should be happy for his generosity after their Father squandered their money and then died. Freddie, her sister Charlotte (Charlie) and Mother Louise live with Lord Harker a distant relative. Freddie is very aware of how many times she has caught Lord Harker eying her sister Charlie and no it's just a matter of time before he forces himself on Charlie. So when Lord Harker comes to Freddie with a story of an enemy some powerful gentile of Britain having a code book which if Freddie will steal he will give her family a cottage, allowance and dowry for Charlie. According to Freddie she should be able to steal this code book as in her own opinion she is very plain and practically invisible when her sister Charlie is present. Charlie really can't believe Lord Harker when he informs her he is a spy for the British government and the brothers Graylocke are spies for France, but she is willing to try anything to get Charlie away from Lord Harker. The unmarried Duke of Tenwick's (Lord Morgan Graylocke), party is the highlight of society. Charlie who is being presented to society (ton) this year is so excited when Lord Harker presents them with an invitation to the Tenwick Abbey house party for a month. The sister of the Duke Lady Lucy Graylocke and her brother Lord Tristan Graylocke will be in attendance at the party. Enter Tristan Graylocke and fireworks begin happening between Freddie and Tristan. The cat and mouse seductive game will keep your attention and catch you wanting them to connect. Meanwhile Lady Lucy and Charlie scheme to keep Tristan and Freddie together.
