Customer Reviews

ANNIE JONES was so full of pride always looking for more and over looking what she,already had. She was to be married to Bobby who came to tell her he had been promoted to vice president of the bank he worked for. She immediately talked about getting a bigger home than the one he was buying for them. Then TRAGEDY STRUCK her mom, dad,sister,brother, aunt, uncle and fiance died. She is going out west to marry Samuel Morgan, to become a farmer's wife. Read to see if she can adjust to doing without help in daily living.

I don't know how many of Katie Wyatt books I've read . I've enjoyed all od the. Annie Jones was a special young lady that had been through a lot of pain. Samuel Morgan had his share of pain in life. Will they be able to survive what life throws at the as individuals and as a couple? I won't tell you, you will have to read the book. Hopefully today!

I truly enjoy h longer stories. This was a true western pioneer woman that started out as a spoiled brat . Annie really stepped up to do whatever was needed of her . Helping her husband with the farm, taking care of the house and saving her husband's life was a big reward.Sonja Stover Bracey

Annie has lost much and survived, but her decision to become a mail order bride comes only out of necessity. Samuel is cold to Annie and yet hi eye say otherwise. When during a blizzard tragedy befallen Samuel, it is Annie who readily does what she must.

This was a very good short story not allot of characters which I like. Reading about Pioneer woman and their struggles throughout their life and finding strength and happiness which is what this story is about. Yes I recommend this book.

A Good Story It Was Wonderful . But The Story Dropped Off In Mid Air . I Am Very Disappointed A Series and not even Hint Of The Next Book.Shirley Ketcham
