Regency Romance: To Capture The Duke's Heart by Jessie Bennett, "The Inheritance Saga" series, a clean Regency Historical Romance set in Bath, England. "The Duke of Cumberland, his family and friends, and the town of Bath have many secrets, some of which could destroy both members of ton and commoners alike." Three stories/novellas with interwoven stories and characters..... Part One: is the story of a marriage of convenience to produce an heir and safeguard an inheritance. Edward Frampton, the Duke of Cumberland and his Duchess Charlotte.

Unfortunately, it was hard for me to connect to these characters. Charlotte is rude, selfish, and a snob, who doesn't care for her husband nor her children. Edward, is a jerk, who has a one night stand with the children's governess now he's in love with her. Edward and Charlotte make a total transformation, when their twin babies are threatened. But can they find their HEA? Part three: is the story of Lord Michael Havenshire, while he's ready to become the new Duke Havenshire, he must meet his father's stipulation. ..he must marry a monied and titled Lady or lose his inheritance. He has his sites set on Lady Clare, who will have nothing to do with him due to his checkered past. Can Michael and Clare find their HEA or will Michael lose his inheritance? Part Three.... is the story of James Stratton, the son of a housekeeper, who is rumored to be the illegitimate son, of the late Duke of Cumberland. His mother will neither confirm or deny the accusations. So after years of jokes, and sly remarks he joins the British Royal Navy. Rose, is a struggling young businesswoman who James is in love with but she will have nothing to do with him.
