HER FIRST SEASON AND HER FIRST KISS ... Amy Ott is about to encounter her first season. Knowing nothing about the workings of corsets and country dances, she's looking for any help she can find... even when it comes from the most unlikely source... London's infamous rogue--an older Duke. The Duke of Wardington. This catches the attention from the most rakish Lord in all of London. Lord Nathaniel Dawnton knows what he wants. Amy Ott. When Nathaniel's pursuits meet the walls of Amy's strength, the young lord is ready to jump those walls blindly... even at the expense of reaching something he has been avoiding-- his innermost fear. True love. But once Amy's dark secrets are out, will the fall have been worth it?

CAN LOVE FORGIVE ALL THINGS? Miss Catherine Croftman is done with the Marquess of Clariant! After the publically broken engagement of the century, she has her sights set on finding someone new... Herself. Andrew Dawnton is the Marquess of Clariant, the future Duke of Wardington, and he is madly in love with Catherine... He made her a promise of marriage in their youth, but Catherine's betrayal prevents the marquess from wanting anything to do with her afterward. He's haunted by a past that includes death and outrage, and trusting Catherine again would be a fool's move. Is Catherine truly ready to move on? Will Andrew learn to forgive and keep his word?

CAN ONE EVER TRULY LOVE HER ENEMY? The night that William, The Earl of Cartridge, was struck over the head changed him forever... He's been knocked out by a beautiful thief and plans to seek justice for this crime. Jane Croftman's family is wealthy beyond reason, but the land gentry's daughter is willing to do whatever it takes to protect those she loves... even if that means stealing from members of high society or knocking out an earl. Anything for peace. When William's revenge turns into hot kisses and help, Jane tries to refuse them both. Will William find the key to Jane's freedom before it's too late? Will Jane learn to trust William with her life and possibly even her heart? This is a clean, historical regency romance story. Just $0.99 for a very LIMITED TIME OFFER only. Customer Reviews

Three love stories, intertwined with characters and timelines running through them all. Twists and turns, AND He did What? She said What? Who was That? and of course...You've got to be kidding!!The London Lover, Nathaniel, wants Amy for his mistress. When he asks if she'll be with him, she thinks marriage. He disabuses her of that idea very quickly. And the race is on. Who will win the challenge? Do the contestants even know there is one? Just how many people are involved in this set up? Join in the enjoyable, scintillating fun and see if you can figure out how long it will take to work it all out, and how it all unravels.The Marquess, Andrew, made a promise as a teen. He would marry the love of his life, Catherine, or at the very least propose marriage on her 25th birthday if she was not promised or married to anyone else. She turned all else away waiting for him. As time gets closer, his animosity grows stronger, until he lets her know - - "bye-bye Charlie", or in this case, "Cat".Can she win him back? After all it's based on a grudge he's been carrying around for nine long years. Again, the kibitzers are involved, many of the same ones as before, and Andrew is Nathaniel's big brother. William has a larger part in this story and if he wasn't an Earl I'd picture him with a big grin on his face and rubbing his hands with glee. Seeing someone get their comeuppance is so, so satisfying. See what you think when you read this one. A chortle or two towards the end would not be untoward at all. William, the Earl, finally gets his own story at last, instead of being a secondary or tertiary character of every one else's tale. Boy does he get a convoluted mess to sort out.
